Attachments: FAPL List for Board Calls for Seminar.xls

This is the final email you'll get from me on this...our line-up for tomorrow morning is incredible: Dudley Goodlette (House Speaker's office), Bud Kneip (Senate President's office), Amy Baker and Kathy Mears (Governors office). We expect to be approved for three hours of CLE credit for all you attorneys and you'd get three hours towards our new FAPL lobbyist designation.

All the info is below and it's very easy to sign up. Please click on the link and sign up or encourage your colleagues and clients to do so if you are on vacation or traveling and unable to join.

Legislative Session??

We did!!

So we invited the Chief of Staff of the Florida House (Dudley Goodlette) and Florida Senate (Robert Kneip) as well as the Legislative Director of the Governor's Office (Kathy Mears) and the Legislative Guru of the Florida Economy (Amy Baker) to fill us in on such topics as taxes, insurance, health care, education, and more.

Don't miss the 2009 Session Wrap Up Webinar being sponsored by the Florida Association of Professional Lobbyists.

Register now by following this link. The webinar will be held Tuesday, May 19 from 9:00 a.m. until noon and the cost is a mere $99.00 for FAPL members and $129.00 for non-members. Be sure to invite all of your clients, friends, anyone you might meet on the street.....the more, the better!!

CLE's for attorneys have been applied for. Hours will count toward the Designated Professional Lobbyist certification.
